Ms P Q Mogatle

Speaker,

6. OBJECTIVES OF THE POLICY

The John Taolo Gaetsewe District Municipality is fully committed to the education, training and development of all employees within the financial muscle and resources available, and this will be done by:

- 6.1 Putting together an education, training development programmes that focus on literacy, numeracy, technical competencies and management and development programmes for staff members.
- 6.2 Allocating training resources within the means of council.

7. POLICY CONTENT

7.1 Training and Development

- 7.1.1 The JTGDM recognizes that its human assets are its most vital resource and is therefore committed to ensuring that all employees receive appropriate education and training.
- 7.1.2 Employees and managers should develop and maintain their education, training and development on an ongoing basis through proper professional training.
- 7.1.3 The HR unit will determine the type of training that will be undergone by staff members, guided by signed skills audit forms and performance development plans (PDP).
- 7.1.4 Employees are encouraged to become involved in their personal development and manage their own careers by indicating their training needs to their supervisors.
- 7.1.5 For courses that will produce qualification certificates in terms of the National Qualification Framework all training courses should be based in unit Standards approved by a Sector Education and Training Authority (SETA). This is to ensure that the training quality and education provided is good enough, and that all learners are properly assessed to an agreed standard.

7.2 IDENTIFICATION OF TRAINING NEEDS

Ms P Q Mogatle

Speaker,

- 7.2.1 Together with an immediate supervisor, an employee must develop his or her own personal development plan or PDP; which must be reviewed and updated at least once per annum.
- 7.2.2 Skills audit will then be conducted during the course of the year to accommodate newly discovered skills after submission of PDP's.
- 7.2.3 Training needs will be determined during the completion of the PDP, and the signing of the performance contracts.
- 7.2.4 Training needs should be in line with the current job of the employee.
- 7.2.5 The supervisor will submit the PDP to the HR manager.
- 7.2.6 The supervisor and subordinate will decide on the training to be attended, as per their PDP.
- 7.2.7 Once the PDP has been submitted, a training plan will then be developed and submitted to managers and supervisors (the intention is to make them aware so that proper arrangements can be made for them to attend training).
- 7.2.8 Once training has been completed, the records should be kept in order to monitor the advancement of employees and to determine additional training.
- 7.2.9 The records will also assist the HR unit to have a database or the correct statistics in order to comply with the WSP as per the requirement of LGSETA.

7.3 LEARNING INTERVENTIONS

Learning interventions are necessary in order to enable employees to meet the requirements of their present job and to enable them to make the most of their performance.

- 7.3.1 On the job training as a form of a learning intervention will be provided for staff members who require it. This can be in the form of new soft ware training, a workshop on a newly developed policy and a conference or seminar.
- 7.3.2 Induction as another form of intervention will be done during the initial stages of an employment.

A full induction programme will be developed by HR and the relevant department.

7.4 FINANCIAL RESOURCES

Ms P Q Mogatle

Speaker
