9. PROCEDURE TO DEAL WITH SEXUAL HARASSMENT ALLEGATIONS.

- 9.1 There are, two options to resolve a problem relating to the sexual harassment depending on the seriousness of the matter. The two options are the informal or a formal procedure. The employee should be under no duress to accept one or the other option.

9.1.1 Option 1: Informal Procedure

- 9.1.1.1 Here, the complainant will approach a person engaging in the unwanted conduct and inform him/her that the behaviour is not welcomed, makes them uncomfortable, and it interferes with their work. The complainant may choose to have a witness in the form of an HR manager or a union member.
- 9.1.1.2 Two sides of the story should be considered whether the procedure is formal or informal.
- 9.1.1.3 If the two meet a consensus, then the informal procedure will be deemed sufficient.
- 9.1.1.4 If the informal approach has not provided a satisfactory outcome, and the conduct continues, it may be more appropriate to embark upon a formal procedure.

9.1.2 Option 2: Formal procedures

Where a formal procedure has been chosen by the aggrieved, a formal grievance procedure according to the Main Collective Agreement will be followed.
